Dear Belize Mission Partners,

I wanted to send you a quick update on our family and work in Belize. As you know, we're in the middle of a number of transitions now as I switch roles and get started with my work as the new President of the Belize Mission Society.

My whole family is back together now in Houston, TX. We've had a few weeks to get reacclimatized to life in the United States and reconnect with family and friends. We've found and settled into a new home, and the kids are preparing to start school soon. God is good! While Elizabeth runs the household I'm prepping to hit the road with a full schedule of visiting supporting congregations and individuals all around the the United States. I'll be busy encouraging past and current partners to keep up their vital support, and picking up some new ones as well. If you're not already partnered with us and are interested in learning more, PLEASE contact me! Remember, I depend on your support to do what I do for the Belize mission.

NOTE: We are handing over the "Christ In Belize" website to our partner in Belize, synod missionary Rev. Herb Burch, and now running our new organization's page. Check it out! www.BelizeMissionSociety.net
