

Rocky Mountain District Church Worker Scholarship Grant Program

The Rocky Mountain District is privileged to offer scholarship grant opportunities for future church workers, ordained or commissioned. Through generous gifts of private donors, endowments and other gifts, these scholarship grants offer students studying at one of the LCMS seminaries or Concordia Universities, opportunity to continue their studies with financial support.

Deadline for submitting scholarship application is June 1, of each year. Scholarship grants awarded will be for fall and spring semesters. Preference will be given to applicants that are studying to become future church workers.

Below is a link to the scholarship application. As stewards of scholarship funds, we seek to provide as much grant money possible to all applicants. To that end, applicants who receive grant funds that choose to change majors that do not eventually lead to becoming a future church worker, is kindly asked to return grant funds so that they may be used for another applicant.

If you have any questions about the Rocky Mountain District Scholarship Grant Program, please contact the district office at 303-695-8001.

Please download the scholarship application. Upon completion of Section I, submit to your institutions financial aid office.