A Note From the President

April 2026

No sooner did we remember the new life given to us by our Savior on Easter than we participated in the Colorado State March for Life. Thank you to everyone who came out to walk with us! Below please find the prayer we Lutherans offered to close the rally based on Psalm 46:

“O Lord, You are our refuge and strength, our very present help in time of trouble – even today... We pray that we would not fear though so much on earth continues to give way, and often easier would it be for the mountains to be moved into the heart of the sea...

we watch as waters roar and foam around us... and we with the mountains tremble... And yet, you provide... streams of living water make glad the city of God, the holy habitation of the Most High, and because you are in our midst, may we not be moved... For you will be our help when morning dawns.

And though the nations rage, and kingdoms rise and totter, you but utter your voice, and all melt before you...

You are with us. And you, the God of Jacob, you are our fortress.

Even on this day, may we behold your works... and be that desolation or the end of war... may your will be done... breaking bows and shattering spears... and chariots of fire...

May we be still, and know that You God... May you again be exalted among the nations, indeed exalted in all the earth!" May we remember today that You are with us. You are the God of Jacob, and you are our fortress."

In your name we pray.
Amen.

In Christ,
Rev. James B. Maxwell

The Pecos Circuit gathered in Ruidoso for their monthly Winkel, welcoming Deaconess Melissa DeGroot to share updates from the district. During her visit, Rebecca Rust graciously gave a tour of the area and shared the stories of the devastating fires and floods that have affected the community over the past three years.

Shepherd of the Hills Lutheran Church—where Pastor Jason Rust serves—has been deeply involved in disaster response efforts, partnering with Synod, Recognized Service Organizations, and local responders to care for those impacted.

Please keep this congregation and the Ruidoso community in your prayers as they prepare for the coming summer season.

COLORADO MARCH FOR LIFE APRIL 17, 2026

Despite a true taste of Colorado spring—complete with snow, freezing temperatures, and blustery winds—the Colorado March for Life on April 17 proved to be a meaningful and well-attended witness for life. The day began with Morning Prayer and fellowship at Mt. Zion Lutheran Church in Denver, where participants gathered for breakfast before traveling together to the State Capitol for the rally and march.

The Rocky Mountain District was well represented, with over 100 participants, including youth, pastors, and church members. Approximately 50 students from Lutheran High School helped lead the march, while the rest of the LCMS group followed, singing beloved hymns with gusto—a bold and joyful witness amid the cold.

While the weather added an extra layer of adventure, spirits remained strong as marchers stood together in support of life at every stage. We were especially grateful that President Maxwell led the closing prayer, bringing the day to a Christ-centered conclusion and reminding us that our work is rooted not only in advocacy, but in hope, mercy, and the Lord's steadfast care.

lasting community of encouragement and care for our pastors' wives. While our supported in their callings, we also want their wives to feel seen, strengthened, and uplifted in the important vocations they carry.

I am especially grateful to serve alongside Joy, Alyssa, Melanie, and Edie, who have generously volunteered their time to help plan this event.
Their experience, strength,

Alyssa Hahn

Tim and I in the middle, our exchange student Ada next to Tim, and our niece Lisa next to me.

My family and I currently live in Haxtun, CO where Tim serves as pastor at Immanuel Lutheran. Our exchange student Ada from Romania has been with us since August and will be flying home in mid-June. Our niece Lisa has been living with us since last May. I work at a small insurance agency, but my passion is in the church, particularly with my junior high students and their youth group that I started. I also lead a young women's Bible study each morning 6 days a week. I am so excited to help plan with the PW Retreat because it's important for these ladies to be able to build relationships with others who are dealing with the same issues, how and heart breaks, those who can truly emphasize with what we each go through.

Joy Lietzau

I live in Arvada, CO, and my husband serves at Wheat Ridge Lutheran Church. We have 4 children: Emmaus-14, Nazareth-12, Arimathea-10, Salem-8. In addition to my role as a pastor's wife, I am also an Registered Nurse Care Coordinator at Denver Health in Denver, CO.

Why I am excited to help plan the Pastors' Wives' Retreat: Being a pastor's wife is a unique opportunity that comes with both joys and struggles. My hope is that a retreat will give other pastors' wives in the RMD the occasion to share with each other those delights and hardships and to be a support in creating a sense of normalcy in that role.

Melanie Aardsvold

Hi, I'm Melanie Aardsvold! My family and I live in Denver, CO, where my husband PJ is called to serve Renewal Church, a multisite ministry with St. John's Church. We have a 5 year old son named Talek, a 2 year old daughter named Lilly, and a 10 month old little son named Levi. I am blessed to be working my dream job as a stay at home mom right now.

I am so excited to help plan the Pastors' Wives Retreat because we have such an awesome group of women in our district supporting ministry, and I am so happy we will get a chance to be encouraged and refreshed by the word of God together!

Eddie Delin

Eddie lives in Durango, CO where her husband, Ben, serves at St. Paul's Lutheran Church. She is mom to Gus, Gemma, and Charis. When she isn't chasing kids around, she also works at their school, leads the handbell choir, and coordinates a community Bible study. Eddie is excited to help plan the Pastor's Wives Retreat because bringing people together in community is one of her greatest joys.
